PART 1 – Recap

I am sure many of you remember the points yet hesitate to share it. We believe our power of communication is 'weak'.

PART 2 – Do you think communication is IMPORTANT?

Why do you think so? (Interaction)

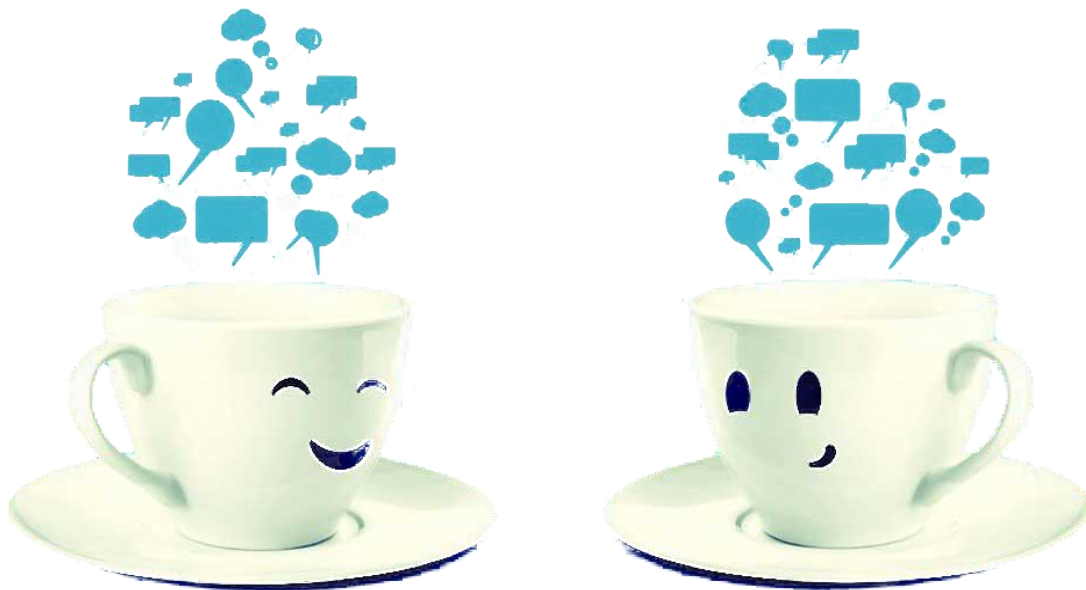

- If you want a holiday, do you need to communicate?
- If you like someone, will you believe, if my love is true, she/he will realize it?
- If you need help, let's say a book, do you need to communicate?
- If you want to eat pavbhaji (how many of you like PavBhaji?)

E. If you want to see a particular TV channel?

F. If you want to play a particular sport?

G. If you want the fan to be slow...

Is there any aspect of life where communication is NOT important?

PART 3 – Communication involves...

a) Understanding others POV

- Activity

b) Making them understand (Teachers in the class).

c) Changing the way someone thinks (when necessary) 1 example in the class.

2. Vivekananda - Address in Chicago at the world congress of Religion brought Indian philosophy to the western world. We were never travelers. We were THE land FOR travelers.

PART 5 – Further PROOF

Can you think of any experience where communication played a critical role?

RavindraNath Sharma - The house is worth Rs. 10,000/- I can afford only Rs. 7000/- Negotiation.

Accident - I profusely accepted my mistake.

Jack and Mark are walking from religious service. Jack wonders whether it would be all right to smoke while praying.

Mark replies, "Why don't you ask the Priest?"

So Jack goes up to the Priest and asks, "Father, may I smoke while I pray?"

The Priest replies, "No, my son, you may not! That's utter disrespect to our religion."

Jack goes back to his friend and tells him what the good Priest told him.

Mark says, "I'm not surprised. You asked the wrong question. Let me try."

And so Mark goes up to the Priest and asks, "Father, may I pray while I smoke?"

To which the Priest eagerly replies, "By all means, my son, by all means. You can always pray whenever you want to."

PART 6 – What are the barriers in COMMUNICATION? (Interactions)

Fear

Assumptions (They will say no to me. They always do. They don't like me)
